WPI Holdings Acquires Wilmington Medical Supply Inc.

OCEANSIDE, N.Y., Oct. 12 /PRNewswire/ -- WPI Holdings d/b/a Woodbury Health Products ("Woodbury"), a portfolio company of HealthEdge Investment Partners, LLC ("HealthEdge"), announced today that it has completed the acquisition of Wilmington Medical Supply Inc. ("WMS").

Based in Wilmington, North Carolina and founded in 1993, WMS is a distributor of home medical supplies and equipment, primarily focused on urological catheters and sterile kits. With a client base of over 700 customers, WMS coordinates the shipment of specialty medical supplies and acts as a resource for caregivers, patients, healthcare professionals and medical facilities, enabling clients to access hundreds of medical supplies in a convenient manner.

According to Woodbury CEO Brian Darling, "We are excited about this acquisition and its strategic fit with Woodbury Health Products. Wilmington enhances our product offering and extends our customer base into patients currently requiring catheters. The acquisition furthers our strategy in helping Woodbury Health Products become a leading direct to consumer distributor of incontinence and related healthcare products in the U.S."

ABOUT WOODBURY HEALTH PRODUCTS
